Master of Science in Accountancy (MSA)

Students from Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics have a special opportunity to gain international experience at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and earn a master's in accoutning (MSA)

Nation's Top-Ranked Business School for Graduate Accounting

High-achieving students at Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics may be pre-approved and directly admitted to the MSA program. UIUC's master's in accounting is STEM-designated, and students learn highly technical skills and the latest business analytics that top companies demand.

Gies College of Business
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

Accounting concentrations are available in:

· Data Analytics in Accountancy
· Taxation

Benefits to Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics students:

· 12-month, on-campus program
· STEM-designated – 36-month OPT eligibility
· Dedicated career and professional development support
· Customized study plans
· Experiential learning opportunity through our Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program
· CPA review course using Becker study materials

Student nomination process

Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics will screen students for potential nomination to the Master of Science in Accountancy (MSA) program. Students will need to start an application at choose.illinois.edu/apply and upload the following materials before Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics nominates them for pre-submission decisions:

· Résumé
· Unofficial transcripts
· MSA coursework form
· Admission statements
· GMAT/GRE score report
· TOFEL/IELTS/Duolingo score report

Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics will send one list of nominated students to Emily Ziegler, Senior Associate Program Director, at ekrickl@illinois.edu no later than January 15.

The MSA program will review the materials of nominated students and send Jiangxi University of Finance and Economics a list of students that are pre-approved for admission, no later than January 22. Students that are pre-approved should submit their complete application and pay the application fee, no later than February 1.